}	Does your aggregate asset allocation need to be reviewed? If so, consider reviewing your portfolio as a whole to help identify/avoid concentrations, wash sales, etc.
}	Do the investment selection criteria need to be reviewed and updated?  If so, consider the investment philosophy and expense ratios for each investment, and the trading activity within each account.
}	Do the investment monitoring criteria need to be reviewed and updated?  If so, consider the performance relative to peers and any changes to the investment manager team.
}	If you rebalance your portfolio, does the rebalance plan need to be reviewed?  If so, consider whether this should be done periodically, or when allocations drift from their targets by a predetermined amount.
	Do you have tax-exempt, tax-deferred, and taxable investment accounts?  If so, consider choosing asset location to maximize returns (e.g., hold tax-efficient assets in taxable accounts, hold income-producing assets or assets distributing large capital gains in tax-efficient accounts).
}	Are you taking or planning to take distributions from the account(s)?  If so, consider your allocation to cash, and strategies to raise cash.
}	Do you have any significant positions that represent a large portion of your portfolio (such as company stock)?  If so, you may be subject to concentration risk.
	Do you have any investments you want to own or exclude from your portfolio? If so, note your instructions and rationale (e.g., legacy, professional, tax considerations). If you would like to align your investing with ethical considerations, explore socially responsible investing (SRI), environmental, social, and governance (ESG), and impact investing strategies. ## 2021 · WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER WHEN REVIEWING MY INVESTMENTS?

INVESTMENT ISSUES (CONTINUED)	YES	NO
<ul> <li>Do you need to open a new account specifically tied to an investment objective, or consolidate existing accounts?         If so, consider the following:         <ul> <li>Take advantage of any tax-preferred accounts that align with your goals (e.g., 529s for education funding, HSAs for healthcare funding, 401(k)s, IRAs, etc. for retirement funding).</li> <li>When rolling over retirement accounts, be mindful of the impact and applicable rules.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

TAX ISSUES	YES	NO
Do you have a taxable account and are you funding your current cash flow needs?  If so, consider tax-efficient income generation and distribution strategies.
<ul> <li>Do you have a taxable account consisting of long-term positions with low cost basis?</li> <li>If so, consider the following:</li> <li>If your taxable income is below $40,400 ($80,800 if MFJ), your long-term capital gain rate is 0%.</li> <li>If your taxable income is between $40,400 and $445,850 ($80,800 and $501,600 if MFJ), your long-term capital gain rate is 15%.</li> <li>If your taxable income is above $445,850 ($501,600 if MFJ), your long-term capital gain rate is 20%.</li> </ul>
Do you have a taxable account and is your MAGI in excess of $200,000 ($250,000 if MFJ)?  If so, consider strategies to manage your net investment income (minimizing the 3.8% NIIT), including investing in municipal bonds, which are not subject to federal taxation (and in some cases state taxes).
<ul> <li>Do you hold assets with a tax loss?</li> <li>If so, consider the following:</li> <li>■ You can harvest losses to offset gains and up to $3,000 of ordinary income. (continue on next column)</li> </ul>

	TAX ISSUES (CONTINUED)	YES	NO
	<ul> <li>If you have multiple lots, the actual-cost method of tracking basis lets you choose which lots to sell, allowing the selection of high basis shares to increase the amount of your realized loss.</li> <li>Be aware of the wash sale rules.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>Are you trying to minimize your tax liability?</li> <li>If so, consider the following:</li> <li>You may wish to limit trading within your taxable accounts, to control gain realization (to the extent possible). Long-term gains are preferable to short-term gains (taxed as ordinary income), but still increase your total income, can trigger AMT, and can affect your eligibility for miscellaneous exemptions, deductions, and credits, and other income-related preferences and adjustments.</li> <li>If you own mutual funds or interests in REITs or MLPs, be prepared for unique tax consequences (e.g., gain distributions,</li> </ul>
